

Habitat is Awarded 4 Stars from Charity Navigator for 2nd year

Habitat for Humanity of Greater Lowell (HFHGL) has received another 4 Star rating for the 2nd year in a row.

Charity Navigator is America's largest and most-utilized independent evaluator of charities. HFHVC has earned its second consecutive 4-star rating. This is the highest possible rating and indicates that HFHVC adheres to sector best practices and executes its mission in a financially efficient way. Attaining a 4-star rating verifies that HFHVC exceeds industry standards and outperforms most charities in its area of work. "We are extremely proud to receive Charity Navigator's 4 Star rating for the 2nd consecutive year. This rating shows our commitment to transparency, trustworthiness and productivity as an organization. Donors and organizations can feel confident that their donations to Habitat for Humanity of Greater Lowell are being used to further the mission and build and repair more homes for families in need.

HFHGL is currently building new homes in Westford and Lowell. At this time, 6 homes are under construction with families building alongside volunteers. When their sweat equity hours and home are complete, families will purchase the home with a 0% interest mortgage. With Habitat's help, these homeowners achieve the strength, stability and self-reliance they need to build a better life for themselves and their families.

